Introduction

Generations of Coasters have enjoyed the benefits of a thriving regional economy that was once the envy of the rest of the country. Our resilient spirit and strong mahi (work) ethic have served us well. But right now, we are vulnerable.

Our world is changing faster than we are. While as a rohe (region) we can be proud of our history, identity, and assets, – we are not yet match fit for the wero ahead. Our rautaki (strategy), Te Whanaketanga, strengthens our position in a rapidly changing world. It ensures we will not only tackle the wero ahead but also realise the enormous potential that exists in solving them.

The economic growth we have traditionally relied on is being challenged and we have much mahi to do in improving the wellbeing of all Coasters. We’ve known this for some time and our hapori (community) is united in the desire to chart a new course that protects everything we love about the Coast, elevates the things we do well and helps us navigate the road ahead.

This rautaki comes at a time when we are experiencing a disrupted global climate. Pressures around climate change and biodiversity collapse are increasing, a global pandemic has brought international tourism to a grinding halt, our rohe is dealing with the fallout from extreme weather events and the government is enacting a raft of significant reforms that will impact our communities.

We have all been affected by these wero in some way. This collective experience serves to remind us of the importance of building a resilient economy that can withstand the shocks and changes we know will occur over time.

It’s difficult to imagine a more important time for us to be clear about what we want and proactive in pursuing it. This is an opportunity for us to front foot the change required and unleash the potential that exists within our communities.

This is our pathway forward as Te Tai Poutini – a rautaki that celebrates our strengths and is honest about our wero, an opportunity to provide a collective view of the way forward, for the Coast to speak with one voice about the future we desire and to get to mahi creating it.

Our journey to 2050 will require hard mahi, determination, and change. We know that over the course of this rautaki we will stop doing some things and start doing others as we navigate our changing world and the significant reforms we know are coming. There is no single “silver bullet” to smooth this transition but within this rautaki are a range of solutions that will collectively make a difference and offer us the opportunity to rethink and regenerate Te Tai Poutini economy.
Our wero is to focus on a handful of priorities that will move the dial for the Coast. We must be careful not to dilute our efforts by trying to do too much and stretching the limited resources available to deliver this rautaki. The measure of a good rautaki is not the words on its pages but the action that follows them. This will require unprecedented levels of collaboration, investment, and action right across our communities. We know Coasters are ready to do this together so we can go further and faster.

The reality is we will not get there alone, and these outcomes won’t come easily. This is not just an internal rautaki for Te Tai Poutini - it’s our message to the world about the future we are creating and the opportunities that exist here. It’s a prospectus for future residents, businesses, and investors.

Te Whanaketanga sets out our shared vision for improving the lives of all Coasters and shows us the pathway forward to achieving our aspirations as a hapori. It:

- Articulates a bold vision and intergenerational outcomes for the West Coast;
- Identifies the challenges and opportunities we face in achieving that vision;
- Identifies the priority missions that have been identified to drive that growth; and
- Provides the blueprint for the Action Plan that will enable the delivery of those missions and the projects that sit beneath them.

Te Whanaketanga focuses us on a generational shift in our economy rather than short term or siloed thinking. It offers an enduring blueprint that will need to be constantly updated and refreshed as we advance on the journey to 2050 and make strides towards achieving these outcomes.

As we mahi together to deliver this rautaki, we must remind ourselves that “many hands make light mahi” and that we can achieve great things for the Coast and future generations if we’re all pulling in the same direction.
Our Approach

Our approach to landing a 2050 rautaki was simple:

1. Engage openly with the hapori to uncover the shared vision, aspirations, and outcomes we can all agree on and get in behind.

2. Mahi with existing strategies, plans and research papers to help inform the contents of the rautaki and ensure it not only complements but reinforces other mahi that is happening in the rohe.

3. Shape a rautaki that becomes a catalyst for action and a guiding document that can be used across business and hapori to ensure we’re all singing from the same song sheet.

To deliver a rautaki that is an inclusive document owned by the communities for whom it was designed, it was important to engage a wide cross section of the hapori.

Seeking to create a generational shift in our economic growth and prosperity, we first went to rangatahi (young people) to seek their views on the type of future they wanted on the Coast and the things that were concerning them. Their voices are heard loud and clear throughout this document and in the priority actions that have been identified to advance this rautaki.

The workshops held to shape the foundation of this rautaki involved over 150 people, including businesspeople, central government, local government, mana whenua and our wider hapori. They represented a cross section of all the parts of our hapori that make the Coast mahi. We are particularly proud of the contributions of over 20 rangatahi who were instrumental in setting the direction for this 2050 rautaki.

Workshop participants provided feedback on the initial draft of the rautaki, including direct feedback from Te Tai Poutini hapori leaders and organised labour (union) representatives.

The 2018–2025 Tai Poutini Economic Development Rautaki will be superseded by the 2050 rautaki. Outstanding actions will be assessed and reassigned to mission groups and priority project streams.

Strengthen and Diversify our Economy

Te Whakawhānui i te Ōhanga

Te Tai Poutini has an abundance of natural resources that form the backbone of our regional economy. To secure our long term economic prosperity and resilience, we need to actively support the growth of emerging industries and strengthen our economic drivers by focusing on adding value.

By focusing on a more circular economic approach, we are able to increase the value of our products and deliver better outcomes for the environment. Our economic activity must actively protect and give back to the natural environment that supports our prosperity.

Te Tai Poutini has untapped potential in the green economy space – from the unrealised value of our natural resources to the knowledge economy potential that exists from our strengths in conservation and biodiversity restoration.

Realising our Natural Resources

Te Whakahaere i ngā Rawa o te Ao Tūroa

We have competitive advantage in the mining sector and natural resources that can be utilised to support the regenerative economic future we aspire to. By focusing on this approach, we are able to unlock economic opportunities whilst protecting and enhancing the natural environment for future generations.

Actions

Support the completion of the Stewardship Land Review so new economic opportunity is enabled and environment outcomes are enhanced.

Secure, affordable and quality housing is out of reach for too many in our hapori. While economic growth is a worthy pursuit, we need to be proactive in ensuring the benefits of that growth flow through equitably and include those who need it the most.

What Does Success Look Like?

Te Tai Poutini’s aspiration is for an economy that is robust where sustainable levels of growth are achieved over the full range of current and future industry sectors while retaining those values underpinning who we are and why people choose to be here –

- An economy that delivers an increasing number of jobs so that the wealth generated provides opportunities for current and future residents of Te Tai Poutini.
- An economy where entrepreneurs and new businesses see opportunities and existing businesses are strong.
- An economy that advocates high quality over quantity.
- Ensuring there is strength and diversity across business sectors and within sectors will help the Coast’s economy withstand shocks within a sector without disrupting the economy as a whole –
- A resilient future economy will see current sectors grow and adapt to change as well as encourage growth in other sectors.
- A resilient economy will provide employment opportunities across all skill levels.
- A resilient economy will support businesses from start-ups, small to medium enterprises, and the largest global corporations.
- A resilient economy will be less vulnerable to and recover more quickly from external shocks.
- A resilient economy will create resilience for those in society disadvantaged most by economic shocks and income equality to ensure the basic needs of society are met.

The Coast’s diverse seasons, wide open spaces, pace of life and the can-do attitude of its people lends itself to attracting people from far and wide to live, do business or visit. To do business here our people must be innovative and creative in the way they run and conduct their businesses. The nature of mahi is changing rapidly and many jobs that exist today will be replaced by different types of mahi in the future. New jobs are anticipated in research, development, engineering and energy industries and we must be positioned for this. We have a lot of talented people on Te Tai Poutini, and we can build on this – innovation breeds innovation. As our traditional industries evolve and new industries emerge, we must create an innovation eco-system that extends our strengths and supports our entrepreneurs and innovators, and attracts new industries.

To do this, we must foster entrepreneurs and enterprises small and large, helping them to compete in local, national and global markets by ensuring the infrastructure and programmes are in place to support their success. We also must develop new ways to gather and share information to grow the Coast’s knowledge sector.
How the Rohe will Measure Success

The next phase of mahi will include a focus on developing success metrics, monitoring and reporting that will enable us to measure the delivery of Te Whanaketanga, the outcomes created from that, and the benefits to the rohe.

The success of Te Whakaketanga will not be defined by the words on these pages but rather the investment and value-add activity resulting from it.

Each priority and associated action will have agreed outcomes and targets developed in conjunction with the lead collaborator.

Our success will be benchmarked against wellbeing outcomes identified to support economic performance and sustainability alongside measures that are specific to each project priority and take into consideration key outcomes such as job creation, investment into the rohe and positive activity.

As the facilitator of the rautaki, Development West Coast will report on the progress of Te Whanaketanga.
How the Rohe will Deliver

This rautaki is about delivering results and outcomes for the Coast to deliver on the aspirations of our hapori. It’s a step change in our approach and focus on economic development that will deliver a generational change required to ensure Te Tai Poutini is match fit for the wero ahead.

The rautaki will be supported by an Action Plan which will set out:

- A champion or lead collaborator for each priority action
- A pathway for resourcing and activation of this priority
- Milestones and deliverables to ensure accountability
- Measures of success to track progress

The Action Plan will evolve as actions are successfully implemented, new opportunities emerge, or existing actions are amended as circumstances change. All action points/projects are linked to the mission statement to confirm alignment to the vision.

There will be many actions and projects that are delivered under the auspices of this rautaki that will not be detailed in the formal document. These will be part of a wave of transformative change enabled by the blueprint Te Whanaketanga offers and the collective commitment of the signatories to this document.

Each signatory has a duty and responsibility to support and deliver on the aspirations of Te Whanaketanga in their respective areas of investment, activity and policy mandate.

The priority actions set out in Te Whanaketanga have been identified as worthy of resourcing and support to enable delivery, but their requirements and the maturity of the actions are all different. Some will require entirely new working groups to be established and project plans drawn up while others may be ready to take to business case, feasibility, or be investment ready.

Critically, the success of Te Whanaketanga will depend on the collective commitment and ability of all stakeholders to deliver against the rautaki and māhi collaboratively on the identified missions and priority actions. Everyone has a role to play in the success of Te Whanaketanga for this to be a truly enduring Te Tai Poutini rautaki.
As part of the Action Plan mahit, a Steering Group will monitor and guide the overall progress of the rautaki and provide representation from stakeholders involved in the plan. The Steering Group will not be a governance group per se but rather the regional nexus for which updated priorities and guidance will flow to help maintain an iterative and generative approach to delivering on the rautaki. The Steering Group will be responsible for collectively delivering on the rautaki, updating it as required and maintaining the momentum required to ensure the rautaki remains relevant for years to come.

The following diagram shows the leadership and support arrangements for delivering the action plan:

<tr>
<td>Identify Projects</td>

| Prioritise Projects | Projects ‘triaged’ according to pre-agreed Assessment Criteria.
- Do they align with the objectives and priorities outlined in Te Whanaketanga?
- Do they already have funding?
- Do they already have consents?
Feedback to Project Owners on gaps and how these might be addressed. |
| Cluster and Coordinate Projects | Apply strategic regional lens.
- Are there advantages to clustering some Projects and encouraging collaboration and/or coordination between Project Owners?
- Will this make the proposition more compelling or introduce efficiencies, etc?
- Are new business models required to support clusters? |
| Identify funding streams, investment sources and project enablers | Develop knowledge and resources around potential funding and investment sources: government contestable funds; other government funding sources (e.g. Agency budgets); private investment/Angel funds; philanthropic funds; crowd sourcing.
Identify capacity and capability to complement enablers that may be required to support project development and/or delivery. |
| Document Preparation | Assist Project Owners in writing documents necessary for their next steps. |

REGIONAL SCAN

- Engage with existing networks and fora to attract Projects into the roadmap.
- Stay abreast of projects being developed outside of this pipeline and consider how we can add value to their efforts?
- Approved information from portfolio of pipeline Projects used to inform regional, national and sector strategies and advocacy (i.e. excluding commercial sensitivities).
- Establish a regular review process to ensure the roadmap is agile to respond to fast changing regional priorities.
- Share progress and success of the roadmap with relevant stakeholders (excluding commercial sensitivities).

MIHI

Morning breaks
The birds call
The vast dawn spreads out
The chorus signals
A shift from night, to day
Dawn is here
There is life!

We acknowledge those who have passed
Those who have been summoned by the night
Go beyond the perceivable
Rest in peace

We return to us, the living
Greetings
Greetings and acknowledgements for our collective care for this place of pounamu, for the West Coast

This is the language of appreciation of Poutini Ngāi Tahu which we extend to the crew at Development West Coast for their efforts to bring this strategy in to reality

It is said that many hands make light work
And so we acknowledge the many hands who have contributed to date, and to the many who will continue to contribute to these kaupapa in the years to come

Best wishes to us all
